He is Risen!

Teacher: _____
Today's Bible passage: Matthew 27:47-54:11

Welcome prayer:
Give a simple prayer with the children before you begin the lesson.

Lesson objectives:
In this lesson, children will learn:
1. What happened to Yeshua after He died on the cross.
2. Where Yeshua rose from the grave.

Bible lesson overview:
That evening, a secret disciple of Yeshua named Joseph went to Pilate and asked for Yeshua's body. Roman soldiers quickly took the Messiah down from the cross. After preparing His body, Joseph and his friend placed Yeshua inside a new rock tomb. The religious leaders were worried. Yeshua's disciples might steal His body out of the tomb. Pilate agreed to seal it shut. But God's plans always prevail. On the Feast of First Fruits, Yeshua was resurrected from the dead. "For if the dead do not rise, then Yeshua's body had gone!" The leaders were scared that people would hear what had happened. They paid the soldiers a bribe to be about His disappearance. "Tell everyone that His disciples stole His body while we were asleep."
