Of Hashem (God)

CHAPTER 7 - Dreams and Visions

Throughout the Bible, there are many examples of Hashem (God) speaking to people through dreams and visions.

One of the most well-known instances occurs in the book of Daniel. The Lord gave dreams to King Nebuchadnezzar in his sleep. He then provided Daniel with the wisdom to interpret the king's dreams, delivering a message that would change the lives of both men.

Acts chapter 10 also records a great example of a vision. Peter went up to the rooftop to pray, and while he was praying, the Lord spoke to him through this vision:

And he saw the sky opened up, and an object like a great sheet descending, lowered by its four corners to the earth, and it contained all kinds of four-footed animals and crawling creatures of the earth and birds of the air. A voice came to him, (Acts 10:11-13).

Hashem (God) used this vision to teach Peter many things. I encourage you to read more about it in the book of Acts.

In general, dreams and visions are one of the least common ways Hashem (God) speaks to people on a day-to-day basis. While I often dream, I haven't had very many dreams over the years that I believe were specific spiritual messages from the Lord.

On the occasions when Hashem (God) did speak to me through a dream at night, I would either wake up with an immediate interpretation (I would instantly know what it meant), or the dream would stay with me for days and I just couldn't stop thinking about it.

Let me give you an example of a dream the Lord gave me. It was three and half years ago, and I remember Hashem (God) had really been dealing with me about I was healing from. I was actually pretty discouraged about the circumstances I was living here in Italy.

Well, in my dream, I saw myself in the main square of Pozzuoli shouting loud: "people of Puteoli, you have rejected Hashem (God)'s word and you shall see the consequences of your action. Then I saw the city of Pozzuoli been hit by a tsunami so high that would cover the old town. In the dark night Hashem (God) was speaking as a powerful blowing Shofar.

I could see two pages of a huge book (it was like a cloud) opened up and displaying all that it would have to come in the end time on both pages as in a mirror.

I woke up and I was terrified from the sound and the vision I saw. I immediately knew what the dream meant!

Hashem (God) spoke to my heart again and said, “Gavriela, move from here, there won’t be left a piece of it that is not from me, there is nothing else you can do here, and I am going to place you to a much bigger level of authority. I will protect you, move!” Wow! That got my attention!

Now, while Hashem (God) most certainly uses dreams to speak to us, it’s also an area where people can be easily deceived or confused. While nearly everyone dreams at night, most of them are not spiritual dreams. So it’s important to be careful and use wisdom in this area. I believe if a dream is really from the Lord, He will give us confirmation in our hearts and help us to know. It’s also true that some people are more gifted in the area of dreams and visions than others. It doesn’t always necessarily mean they are “more spiritual” although seeking Hashem (God) plays a big role in hearing from Him, but it’s simply the way the Lord chooses to reveal Himself to them.

CONCLUSION

Trusting Hashem (God) Step-by-Step

An important aspect of hearing from Hashem (God) is stepping out to do what He tells us to do. Hashem (God) has a part (to lead, guide, and direct us), and we have a part (to follow through and obey what He says).

If you really want Hashem (God)'s will in your life more than anything else, it's going to require you to take a chance, step out, and believe.

For a while, I really dealt with the fear of stepping out and making a mistake. On one occasion, I believed the Lord was asking me to trust Him and go forward in a certain area, but I was petrified. I kept saying to Hashem (God), "I'm so scared, I'm so scared. Abba, what if I've got this wrong? What if I miss You?"

The Lord simply answered, "Don't worry, Gavriela. If you miss me, I will find you."

Trusting Hashem (God) and stepping out is a big part of growing, maturing and enjoying what He has for us. Our faith grows when we continue to step out, not truly knowing what lies ahead.

“GO AND I WILL SHOW YOU”

I’ve learned from experience that Hashem (God) will Often lead us one step at a time. He isn’t going to give us the entire plan all at once. When we are faithful to trust Him and take the first step, then He will show us the next step.

I don’t think there’s any greater example than the story of Abraham in the book of B’reishit (Genesis). Hashem (God) instructed Abraham, saying, ...Go for yourself [for your own advantage] away from your country, from your relatives and your father’s house, to the land that I will show you (B’reishit 12:1 TLV).

Hashem (God) is basically telling Abraham, “Go ahead And pack up your tent, leave your home and all of your extended relatives, and go where I lead you. Just trust Me; this is for your good.”

Simply put, the Lord is saying to Abraham, “Go and I will show you.” That’s the opposite of what we desire. We want Hashem (God) to show us before we go.

However, the Lord wants us to take a step of faith. When we take the first step, then He will give us the next step. As we continue to trust Hashem (God) step-by-step, then our confidence grows because we realize He is leading us to a good place.

STEP INTO THE GOOD THINGS AHEAD

As I mentioned earlier, it has been a big step for me in the past three years to prepare the ministry for a change and move on to the next level. Hashem (God) said to me, "This season of your life is complete, and I'm done with you here, you need to move and be aligned with the International Messianic Movement."

I had many friends and I was really comfortable here. I was also afraid of taking a wrong step and making a mistake. In the end, it took me three and half years to finally move. Yes, things are going quite well where we are. But Hashem (God) knows what he has in store for us, He knows that things can go much better. He planned to fulfill the vision he had placed in my heart many years ago... the vision of teaching His Word to people all over the world, in the right place. But it all depended on my trust in Him and taking the first step.

So many people miss out on Hashem (God)'s blessings because they're afraid to do what He shows them to do. They think they are "playing it safe," but they end up miserable because they never choose to step out. Remember, Hashem (God) is bigger than your mistakes. If you're seeking Him and doing the best you know how, if you step out in faith, believing wholeheartedly that Hashem (God) wants you to do something, He will honor your obedience. If you miss Him, He'll always be faithful to take your mistake and work it out for your good in the end (see Romans 8:28).

Wherever you're at in your walk with Hashem (God), I encourage you to seek Him for His will and direction. Believe that you can hear from Him, then boldly step out and trust Him. Because Hashem (God) has a big, full, wonderful plan for your future...and He desires to lead you every step of the way.

- REDEMPTION -

Hearing from Hashem
(God)
Begins
Right Here

The first step toward hearing from Hashem (God) is to fully turn your life over to Yeshua (Jesus) and develop a personal, intimate relationship with Him. It's the foundational element on which you can build everything else. The moment you realize your deep need for Hashem (God), you begin an amazing journey into His plan for your life.

Romans 3:23 (TLV) says it this way: For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of Hashem (God).

Knowing Yeshua (Jesus) is simply acknowledging your need for Him, believing what He did for you and accepting His amazing gift. It recognizes that you can't live this life on your own, that you've sinned and are in need of a Savior. And the good news about knowing Yeshua (Jesus), about being saved, is the beautiful exchange that happens in that moment.

You give Him all the bad and sinful things you've done, and in return, Hashem (God) gives you everything He has for you. Whether you know it or not yet, His plan for your life is amazing, and this is the first step on that journey.

Yes! You Can Hear from Hashem (God).

People tell me all the time, “Gavriela, I want to learn to hear from Hashem (God), but I just don’t know how.” I want you to know that if you have a relationship with Yeshua (Jesus Christ), you can hear and understand His voice.

The truth is, our heavenly Abba (Father) never meant for us to live without His loving counsel and direction. It’s His will for us to be led by His Ruach Hakodesh (Spirit) and live with “divine guidance” (see John 14:26). Hashem (God) has an amazing plan and purpose for our lives, and He desires to lead us every single step of the way.

In this book, I teach how to:

- Recognize the voice of the Ruach Hakodesh (Holy Spirit) in your daily life
- Trust what Hashem (God) says more than your emotions
- Receive divine insight through His Torah
- Boldly ask for Hashem (God)’s help and direction
- Discover the many ways Hashem (God) speaks

So, are you in need of wisdom and direction for your life? Would you like Hashem (God)’s help with the “big” stuff, the “little” stuff, and every- thing in between? If so, divine guidance is just a prayer away.
