

Mah Nishtanah?

Last year 2020 on Pesach (Passover), we encountered the classic holiday question, "Mah Nishtanah HaLailah Hazeh" - what makes this night different - instead as "Mah Nishtanah HaShanah HaZot?" - what is different about this particular year? We believed that this would be our only year of Zoom Seders and social distancing and that by this time, this year, we would be back together in person for our usual Pesach (Passover) festivities.

This year, we are reminded of a different phrase, this time in Yiddish: Mensch tacht, Got lacht - man plans, Hashem (God) laughs. We may not be able to accurately predict exactly what the next weeks and months hold, but as always Pesach (Passover) reminds us that even in times of difficulty, we always have great cause for hope.

Below you will find many resources - some created last year and still applicable to this second pandemic Pesach (Passover), some created this year, and some that might be helpful in any year. Again this year we will say not only "Next year in Yerushalayim (Jerusalem)," but also "Next year together." May each of you - and all those you love - have a meaningful Pesach (Passover) however you celebrate this year. May we have the joy of coming together in person next year, and in each future year. How sweet and how uplifting it will be!

Pesach (Passover) Observances

Seder After party: The Stuff You (Might) Never Do!

Saturday, March 27 at 9:00PM Zoom

We know that after the meal, it can be so hard to return and finish up the seder. But that's often the most fun and funny part! What better time could we have to enjoy the end of the seder than this year (where do we have to go, anyway?). After your seder or your meal, join Rabbis Harel & Rebbetzin Gavriela Frye for the final glasses of wine, songs, and merriment that make up the end of the seder. It'll take 45 minutes or less, and it'll be a lot of fun! RSVPs requested, email us. For questions, email Rabbi Harel.

Pesach (Passover) Yizkor Service

Following Shabbat Services, Friday April 2

It's traditional to remember beloved family members who have passed during the holiday. A Yizkor memorial service will be included at the end of our Kabbalat Shabbat service on Friday, April 2.
